

Customer Account Manager

Working within our busy Sales and Service Centre at our Head Office in Solihull, your role will primarily involve making outbound sales calls to your own client base, across two aligned regions. You will be responsible for the development and sales of appropriate drinks brands and ranges, in order to maximise volume and profit opportunities.

As part of a lively team you must be customer focussed with high levels of attention to detail, and the ability to provide exceptional service to all customers. A significant part of the role also involves resolving customer concerns and queries in an extremely professional and efficient manner, so it is important you are committed to delivering high levels of customer service.

We are looking for an experienced sales person, who is a highly motivated team player and ready to take on this challenging role
